Art + Zap Weekend

A Bitcoin-funded fundraiser for Bitcoin For The Arts

Live in-person finale at Pubkey DC with a Broadway-caliber headliner. Audience donations route to BFTA and flow through our public 55/30/10/5 allocation. Featured artists also receive 100% of any optional direct tips sent to their personal Lightning addresses during their broadcast segments.

WHEN

- A weekend in late August through early October 2026. Saturday + Sunday, 1–5 pm ET each day, broadcast live (specific weekend confirming with venue).
- Following Monday evening: in-person finale at Pubkey DC headlined by a Broadway performer (Broadway is dark Mondays — top NYC talent uniquely available).

WHERE

- Online: YouTube + X + Nostr (Zap.Stream) + Fountain — broadcast simultaneously.

WHY A SPONSOR CARES

- First-mover story. Sponsors written into the founding narrative of an arts-funding model built on Bitcoin rails.
