

BFTA × MIDWEST BITCOIN SUMMIT · SPONSOR SHEET

Generations.

Where culture meets sound money.

DATES

September 23–24, 2026

VENUE

Greater Columbus Convention Center,
Columbus, Ohio

CO-CURATED BY

Kyle Knight & Bitcoin for the Arts

AUDIENCE

Bitcoiners, working artists, cultural patrons

Bitcoin for the Arts (BFTA) is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit that pays working artists directly in Bitcoin and maintains a long-term reserve so what we raise today supports artists for generations. We are co-curating Generations, the gallery and live programming inside the Midwest Bitcoin Summit — two days of working artists in a curated cultural room, with sponsorship opportunities from $500 to $25,000.

The Opportunity

Bitcoin conferences have grown into serious institutions. What has been quietly missing alongside them is a curatorial counterpart — a serious cultural room, with serious working artists, treated as central to the programming rather than peripheral to it. Generations is that room, and Columbus is where Bitcoin for the Arts is going to help build it.

The audience is the reason. The room at the Midwest Bitcoin Summit is a crowd of Bitcoiners who already understand sound money — and who are, by every definition, the future patron base for the next generation of working artists. Bringing real artists into that room, paid in Bitcoin, supported by infrastructure that lets the audience zap them in real time, is exactly the kind of moment our 501(c)(3) was built to create.

Total fundraising target: $80,000+. The level of commitment that lets us bring working artists into Columbus and pay them like the working professionals they are. Tiers below from $500 to $25,000.

What's in the Room

Two days of programming inside Generations, our co-curated cultural footprint at the conference. Specific artists and run-of-show being finalized.

Live Music Performances

Working artists performing across both days, with broadcast sound by a professional engineer.

Live Painting

A featured artist creating a piece in real time across the run of the event.

Artist Discussion Panel

A moderated conversation about Bitcoin and the working artist's life.

Live Broadcast to Nostr

Live music performances streamed to Nostr in real time.

Visual Artist Showcase

Featured artists on the gallery walls, with Lightning QR codes on every piece.

Share Your Bitcoin Journey — Live

On-site podcast station capturing live tapings of BFTA's flagship podcast.

Lightning Lounge

Staffed Lightning wallet onboarding for first-time users.

Two Raffles

An artist-funding raffle ($2,500 micro-grant) and an artwork raffle (donated piece, attendee winner).

Sponsorship Tiers

Presenting Sponsor

$25,000

1 SLOT (POSSIBLY 2)

- Co-branded as "Bitcoin for the Arts at Generations, presented by [Sponsor]"
- Dedicated branded booth inside the gallery floor (the only tier that includes a booth)
- Prominent logo placement on the BFTA wall installation, panel stage backdrop, and podcast set
- 2-minute speaking slot at the BFTA mission panel
- One named-artist sponsorship included ($2,500 value)
- First mention in every BFTA newsletter from announcement through year-end
- Sponsor branding throughout the post-event recap video
- Permanent listing on BFTA Sponsors page and in the 2026 transparency report
- Tax-deductible to the full extent of the law

Curatorial Sponsor

$15,000

2 SLOTS

- Standing banner placement inside the gallery (no booth)
- Logo on the gallery wall as the named "Visual Artists Sponsor"
- Named recognition with the visual artist program — "Visual Artists Program presented by [Sponsor]"
- Sponsor logo on the livestream lower-third during gallery walkthroughs
- Two named-artist sponsorships included
- Featured in BFTA newsletter and post-event recap
- Permanent listing on BFTA Sponsors page
- Tax-deductible

Lightning Lounge Sponsor

$10,000

1 SLOT

- The Lightning Lounge takes the sponsor's name — "The [Sponsor] Lightning Lounge"
- On-site staffed onboarding station inside the gallery, branded throughout
- Every attendee being walked through their first Lightning wallet downloads the sponsor's app
- Sponsor logo on Lightning Lounge signage, the program, and the livestream
- 2-minute demo or speaking slot during the panel programming
- Featured in BFTA newsletter and post-event recap
- Permanent listing on BFTA Sponsors page
- Tax-deductible

Programming Sponsor

$7,500

1 SLOT

- Logo on the panel stage backdrop
- Named credit in the live podcast taping intro/outro — "This live taping of Share Your Bitcoin Journey is presented by [Sponsor]"
- Logo on livestream lower-third during the panel
- One named-artist sponsorship included
- Featured in BFTA newsletter and post-event recap
- Permanent listing on BFTA Sponsors page
- Tax-deductible

Sponsor an Artist

$2,500

8–10 SLOTS

- Named program credit — "[Artist] presented by [Sponsor]"
- Personal thank-you from the artist during their set introduction
- Logo on artist's program card and livestream lower-third during their performance
- Sponsor name in post-event social posts about that artist
- Listing on BFTA Sponsors page
- Tax-deductible

Raffle Underwriter

$2,500

1 SLOT

- The Artist Funding Raffle is named — "The [Sponsor] Artist Funding Raffle"
- Live raffle moment on stage with sponsor named
- Sponsor logo on all raffle materials and livestream lower-third during the draw
- Winning artist receives the $2,500 Bitcoin micro-grant in the sponsor's name
- Listing on BFTA Sponsors page
- Tax-deductible

Friend of BFTA at Midwest

$1,000

OPEN

- Logo on a shared "Made possible by" wall card
- Mention in BFTA newsletter and post-event recap
- Listing on BFTA Sponsors page
- Tax-deductible

Visual Artist Stipend

$500

8–15 SLOTS

- Named credit on the visual artist's wall card — "[Artist], stipend supported by [Sponsor]"
- Listing in event program and on BFTA Sponsors page
- Tax-deductible

In-Kind Contributions

Cash isn't the only way to support the event. Goods and services contributed in-kind are tax-deductible at fair market value, and each donor is publicly named.

A/V production support

Beyond the equipment Phantom Power Music has donated — additional gear, monitor mixing, or stage backline (~$2,000–$5,000 value).

Photography & videography

On-site coverage of performances, gallery, and panel + edited recap reel (~$3,000–$5,000 value).

Hardware wallets for artists

A great fit for any hardware vendor who wants to put their device in the hands of working artists who will talk about it on the broadcast (~$1,500–$3,000 value).

Backline gear for live music

Instruments, amps, drum kit, keyboard. A real contribution to the live performance program (~$1,500–$3,000 value).

Live painting materials

Canvases, paints, brushes, easels for the featured live painter (~$300–$800 value).

Catering & beverage

Meals or coffee for artists and crew during install and show days (~$2,000–$5,000 value).

Travel & lodging for artists

Hotel rooms or flights for one or more featured artists (~$1,500–$5,000 value).

Print & signage

Sponsor banners, wall labels, programs, step-and-repeat (~$500–$1,500 value).

Donated artwork

Artists donating original work for use in a silent auction, the artwork raffle, or direct sale. Proceeds support BFTA's artist grants program. Each donor publicly named.

Why This Matters

Bitcoin for the Arts pays working artists directly in Bitcoin through quarterly micro-grants and longer-term residencies. Every donation flows through a public allocation rule we call 55/30/10/5: 55% to artists, 30% to programs, 10% to operations, and 5% to a long-term Bitcoin reserve we call the HODL Vault. What we raise today supports artists for generations.

Sponsorships at Generations directly fund artist payments at the event and grow BFTA's reserve for future grant cycles. Every sponsor is publicly credited and counted in our annual transparency report.

Get Involved

Sponsorships, in-kind contributions, and partnership conversations all start with a 15-minute call.

Email: info@bitcoinforthearts.org

Web: bitcoinforthearts.org/midwest

Bitcoin for the Arts, Inc. · 501(c)(3) tax-exempt nonprofit · EIN 41-2642260 · Founded 2025 ·
Headquartered in New York, NY

Sound money for timeless creators. Empowering artists with Bitcoin micro-grants & workshops.
bitcoinforthearts.org