BITCOIN FOR THE Arts

PROPOSAL
BITCOINDAY NAPLES
JANUARY 16, 2027
$10,000

One day in Naples. A live performance, and a curated table of original work.

Prepared for John Drew, BitcoinDay. Bitcoin For The Arts is the presenter. This is one proposal, and if it is accepted, one agreement with Bitcoin For The Arts, Inc.

CLCT, led by Kyle Knight, curates the visual art and keeps its own name. Ainsley Costello performs as an independent artist. Dion Wilson sets the table at the event. Kyle will not be in Naples. Dion's travel and lodging are not in this budget.

WHAT BITCOINDAY GETS

- A live performance by Ainsley Costello, the Nashville artist who opened Bitcoin Arts Park at the Midwest Bitcoin Summit in September 2026.
- A table of original work, selected by CLCT, in the room with the people attending BitcoinDay.
- The artists paid to take part, and the work shipped to Naples and back.
- A host on the table for the day. Dion Wilson sets it up and stays with it.

In September 2026, Bitcoin For The Arts presented Bitcoin Arts Park at the Midwest Bitcoin Summit, and CLCT curated the gallery there. This is that partnership, scaled to a one-day room of about 200 people.

BUDGET

LINE	WHAT IT PAYS FOR	AMOUNT
Ainsley Costello	Artist grant for the live performance, paid to her. It covers the performance and her own costs to be there. She is not part of the CLCT fee.	$2,500
CLCT curation	Kyle Knight selects the artists and the works, invites them, prepares the presentation, and coordinates the shipment. He does this without attending. Paid to CLCT.	$2,000
Visual artists	Paid by Bitcoin For The Arts to the artists whose work is shown. Kyle proposes the split after the roster is set. Dion approves it before anyone is promised a figure.	$2,000
Shipping	Insured freight to Naples and back for the works in the show. This is an allowance. A lower carrier quote does not create a new expense. A higher quote means fewer works, and this line holds.	$2,000
Table display	Stands, labels, and hardware. Dion sets the table. This is not a travel line.	$500
Program coordination	Agreements, payments to Ainsley, CLCT, the artists, and the shipper, and the day-of host. Ten percent of the proposal.	$1,000
Total	Payable to Bitcoin For The Arts, Inc.	$10,000

NOT IN THIS BUDGET

Dion Wilson's travel and lodging. Kyle Knight's travel and lodging. The room itself, which is BitcoinDay's. Any sale of a work. If a piece sells, that sale is between the artist and the collector, through CLCT, and it is outside this $10,000.
