

SPONSORSHIP PROPOSAL
MIDWEST BITCOIN SUMMIT 2026
SEPT 23-24 · COLUMBUS, OH

W H O W E A R E

Bitcoin for the Arts is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit empowering artists with Bitcoin micro-grants, education, and sovereign funding tools. We are the first nonprofit paying artists exclusively in Bitcoin.

Our work spans original podcast journalism, weekly editorial publishing, an 8-part educational webinar series for artists, micro-grant deployment, a public Artist Directory, and on-the-ground cultural programming at major Bitcoin conferences. We are a startup nonprofit operating with limited resources, building the patronage model that the arts and the Bitcoin movement both need.

The Midwest Bitcoin Summit returns to the Greater Columbus Convention Center on September 23 and 24, 2026. BFTA has secured a dedicated 30'-wide footprint on the Expo Hall floor and access to the Secondary Stage for lunch-hour performances on both days. We call this footprint Bitcoin Arts Park.

Inside the footprint: a curated film cinema, a Living Room brand and Lightning wallet demo zone, a Gallery wall with peer-to-peer Lightning silent auction, and a merchandise and donation counter. On the Secondary Stage, two days of programmed live performances by Ainsley Costello and other working artists on a Bitcoin standard. And, anchoring the cinema, a live presentation and Q&A of Dirty Coin, the most-screened Bitcoin documentary in the world, by director Alana Mediavilla.

WHAT THE SPONSORSHIP FUNDS

This is a single, unified $15,000 ask. The budget below shows exactly where every dollar is allocated.

Director appearance — Alana Mediavilla & Dirty Coin	$5,000	33.3%
BFTA Bitcoin Arts Park operations	$10,000	66.7%
TOTAL REQUEST	$15,000

Director Appearance — Alana Mediavilla & Dirty Coin

A $5,000 stipend supporting Alana's travel, lodging, ground transport, screening preparation, and honorarium for her live presentation and audience Q&A of Dirty Coin at the BFTA Bitcoin Arts Park.

Director appearance stipend (Alana Mediavilla, Campo Libre)	$5,000
---	----------------

BFTA Bitcoin Arts Park — Operational Backbone

Core operational build of the 30'-wide BFTA footprint and the Secondary Stage performance programming. Built to the Ahmed Designs construction-intent spec, itemized below.

Booth structure (modular base, 3 zones, install & dismantle)	$3,500
A/V package (projection, monitor, headphones, media players)	$2,000
Furniture, lighting, and signage	$1,500
Show services (power, drayage, Wi-Fi)	$1,200
Performer honoraria (Secondary Stage)	$1,000
Hospitality, supplies, shipping, contingency	$800
OPERATIONS SUBTOTAL	$10,000

TOTAL REQUEST	$15,000
----------------------	-----------------

IF THE FULL $15,000 IS NOT RAISED

If committed funding falls short of the full ask, BFTA will deploy any committed funds first to the operational backbone of the BFTA Bitcoin Arts Park. Dirty Coin will still be presented at the Summit through a decentralized rental of the film, without director travel. Donors will receive a full reconciliation against actuals within 30 days of the Summit.

O U T C O M E S & D E L I V E R A B L E S

Live Dirty Coin presentation and audience Q&A at the 2026 Midwest Bitcoin Summit, hosted by director Alana Mediavilla, inside the BFTA Bitcoin Arts Park footprint.

Two days of live cultural programming on the Secondary Stage, featuring Ainsley Costello and other working artists paid in Bitcoin.

A documented Bitcoin Arts Park with photo, video, and on-chain receipts published to BFTA's newsletter, Substack, and social channels post-event.

Audience reach: an estimated 3,000+ heartland attendees plus reciprocal access traffic, and BFTA's growing newsletter, Substack, and podcast audiences.

A post-Summit reconciliation report with actuals against budget, distributed to all donors within 30 days.

D O N O R R E C O G N I T I O N

Sponsors at the $15,000 level are recognized as Bitcoin Arts Park Founding Patrons:

Named recognition on signage inside the BFTA Bitcoin Arts Park footprint at the Midwest Bitcoin Summit.

Acknowledgment at the live Dirty Coin presentation and at Secondary Stage performances introduced by the BFTA team.

A donor feature in BFTA's newsletter and on the BFTA Substack post-event, with the donor's preferred attribution.

On-chain receipt issued via BFTA for any BTC contribution, plus a full 501(c)(3) tax-deductible acknowledgment letter for any USD contribution.

Standing invitation to all BFTA Bitcoin Arts Park activations at future Bitcoin conferences.
