Art + Zap Weekend

A Bitcoin-funded fundraiser for Bitcoin For The Arts, Inc. · 501(c)(3) · EIN 41-2642260

A one-day, 4.5-hour, 21-artist Bitcoin podcast livestream, leading into one in-person night at Pubkey DC, Washington, DC. September 2026. The livestream runs 4.5 hours in a single day, featuring 21 artists across music, dance, theater, visual art, film, writing, and storytelling — hosted by Bitcoin podcasters and broadcast on YouTube, X, and Nostr. The in-person night brings live performance, a silent art auction, and a Broadway-caliber headliner. A handful of the stream's 21 artists also perform live at Pubkey.

Why this matters

Federal arts funding is collapsing. The NEA was targeted for elimination in two consecutive federal budgets. State arts appropriations are projected to drop 7.7% nationally for FY2026. Artists are being told that the institutional funding model they depend on is no longer reliable.

Bitcoin and the Lightning Network make a non-state-dependent arts funding model possible for the first time. We are the first 501(c)(3) building it. Sponsors at this event are written into the founding narrative.

How donations flow

This is a fundraiser FOR Bitcoin For The Arts, not a real-time direct-patronage event. Audience donations route to BFTA and feed our nationwide quarterly artist micro-grant cycle. Featured artists also receive 100% of any optional direct tips sent to their personal Lightning addresses during their livestream segments and at the in-person night.

Why sponsors care

- First-mover story. Written into the founding narrative of an arts-funding model built on Bitcoin rails.
- Permanent on-brand content. Logos visible on every event clip and recap on YouTube, X, and Nostr — long after the event.
- High-signal audience. Bitcoin + arts overlap = high-intent, high-net-worth, deeply loyal to brands that show up early.
- Tax-deductible. 501(c)(3) with public governance, on-chain transparency, and EIN 41-2642260.
