1. Purpose

This micro-grant supports Artist's project The Bitcoin Executor, a Bitcoin-themed narrative feature film in post-production, including work toward completion, marketing, and distribution / theatrical-screening development as described in Artist's BFTA grant application. Artist retains full creative control of the Work.

2. Grant amount and payment

BFTA awards One Thousand U.S. Dollars (USD $1,000.00), payable in Bitcoin (on-chain and/or Lightning) at the BTC/USD rate reasonably used by BFTA on the payment date. Payment will be sent after (a) this Agreement is fully signed, (b) Artist provides a completed IRS Form W-9, and (c) Artist provides a valid Bitcoin and/or Lightning payout destination in writing. Artist acknowledges Bitcoin price volatility and transaction finality. BFTA is not responsible for wallet loss, user error, incorrect addresses, or exchange-rate movement after payment is sent.

3. Use of funds

Funds may be used for reasonable project-related expenses consistent with the application, including without limitation:

- Theatrical screening / tour planning and related consulting
- Marketing package for the tour (including Nostr/X campaign and printed posters)
- Commerce / ticketing site development supporting Bitcoin payment options
- Other reasonable costs directly tied to completing, marketing, or distributing the film

Funds may not be used for illegal activity, unlawful political campaign intervention, or purposes unrelated to the Project.

4. Recognition and attribution

Artist agrees to provide Bitcoin for the Arts with clear recognition reflecting the level of support, including listing BFTA in the film's end credits (sponsor / supporter acknowledgment, or such other high-visibility credit as the parties confirm in writing before final lock). Where Artist publicly shares Project updates related to this grant, Artist will credit BFTA where reasonable: "Supported by Bitcoin for the Arts."

5. Reporting

Within 60 days of receiving the grant (and upon reasonable request thereafter through Project completion), Artist will provide a short written update (approximately 3–10 sentences) and, when appropriate, links or media documenting progress (e.g., screening plans, marketing materials, or release milestones). Artist agrees to notify BFTA if the Project becomes impossible to complete as described.

6. Publicity

BFTA may publicly feature Artist's name, Project title, a short description, and media Artist provides or approves, including on BFTA's website, newsletter, social channels, and grant storytelling. Artist may request reasonable corrections to factual errors.

7. Relationship of the parties

Artist is an independent grantee, not an employee, partner, or agent of BFTA. This grant does not create an employment relationship. Artist is solely responsible for any taxes arising from receipt of the grant.

8. Termination / unused funds

If the Project cannot proceed, Artist will notify BFTA promptly. BFTA may request return of unused grant funds on a best-effort basis. Either party may terminate this Agreement for material breach not cured within 14 days after written notice.

9. Entire agreement

This Agreement is the entire agreement between the parties concerning this micro-grant and may be signed electronically (including via DocuSign). Electronic signatures are effective. Governing law: State of New York, without regard to conflict-of-law rules.

This document is an organizational grant instrument. It is not legal, tax, or investment advice. Artist should consult Artist's own advisors as needed.
